The world it got so busy,
There were people all around.
They left their germs behind them;
In the air and on the ground.

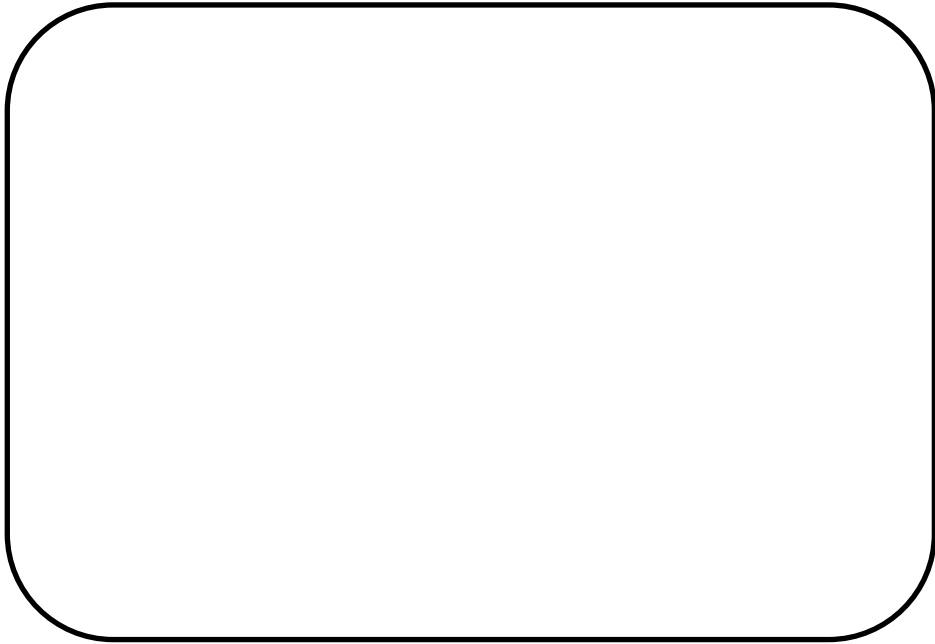

We opened our doors oh so slowly
And breathed in the clean and fresh air.
We promised that forever and always
Of this beautiful world we'd take care.

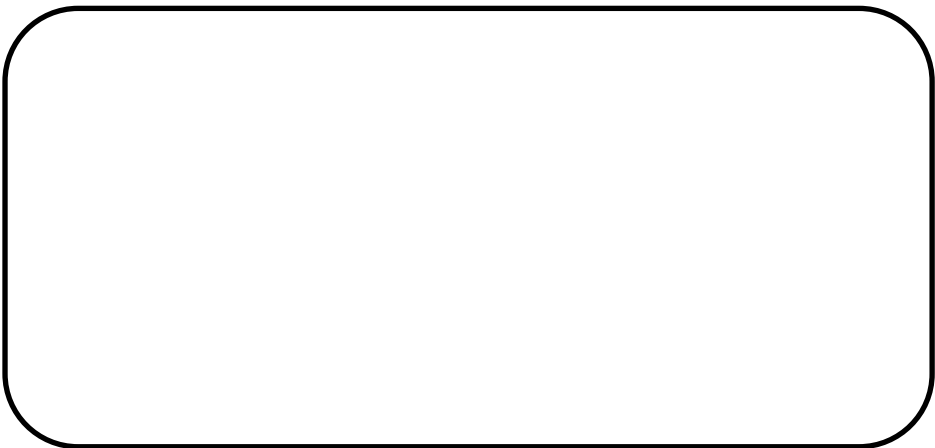

Then one morning the sun woke up early,
She smiled and stretched her beams wide.
The world had been fully spring cleaned,
It was time to go back outside!

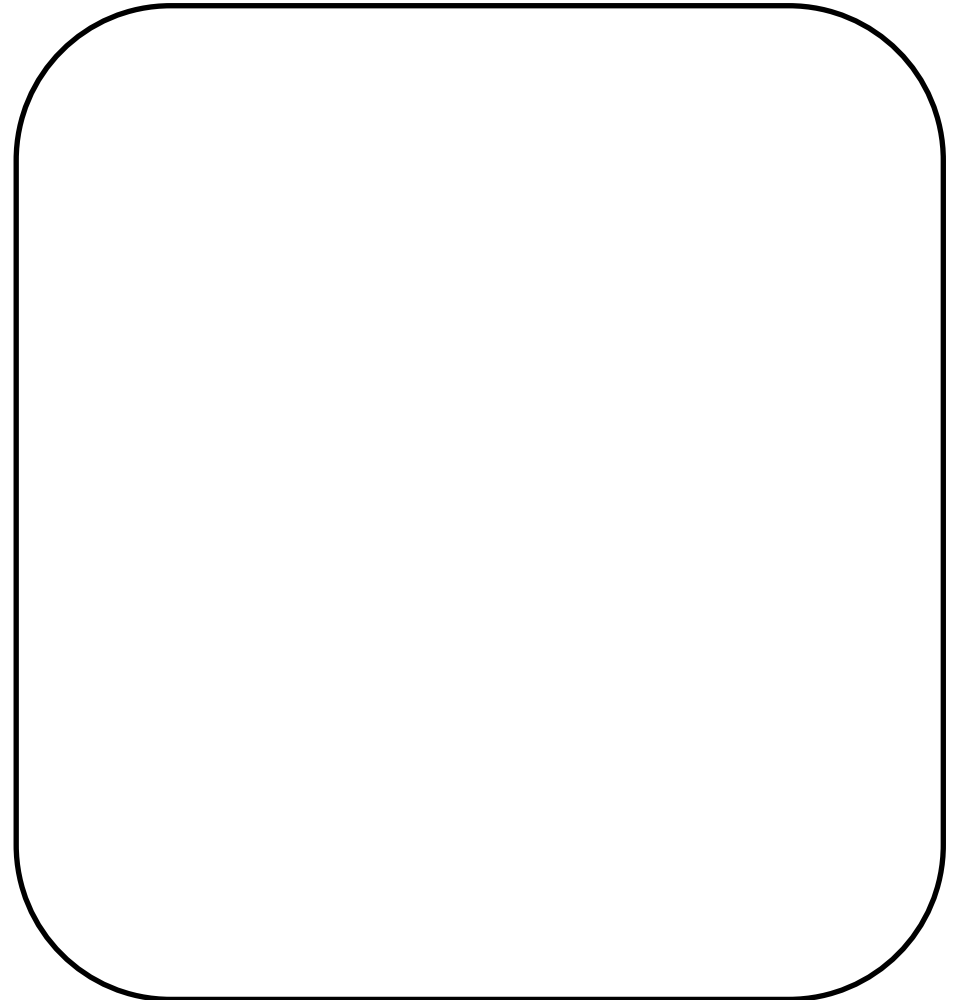

These germs grew bigger and stronger.
They wanted to come and stay.
They didn't want to hurt anyone—
They just wanted to stay and play.

All the Queens and Kings had a meeting.
"It's time to clean the world up!" they said.
And so they had to close lots of fun stuff,
Just so these germs couldn't spread.

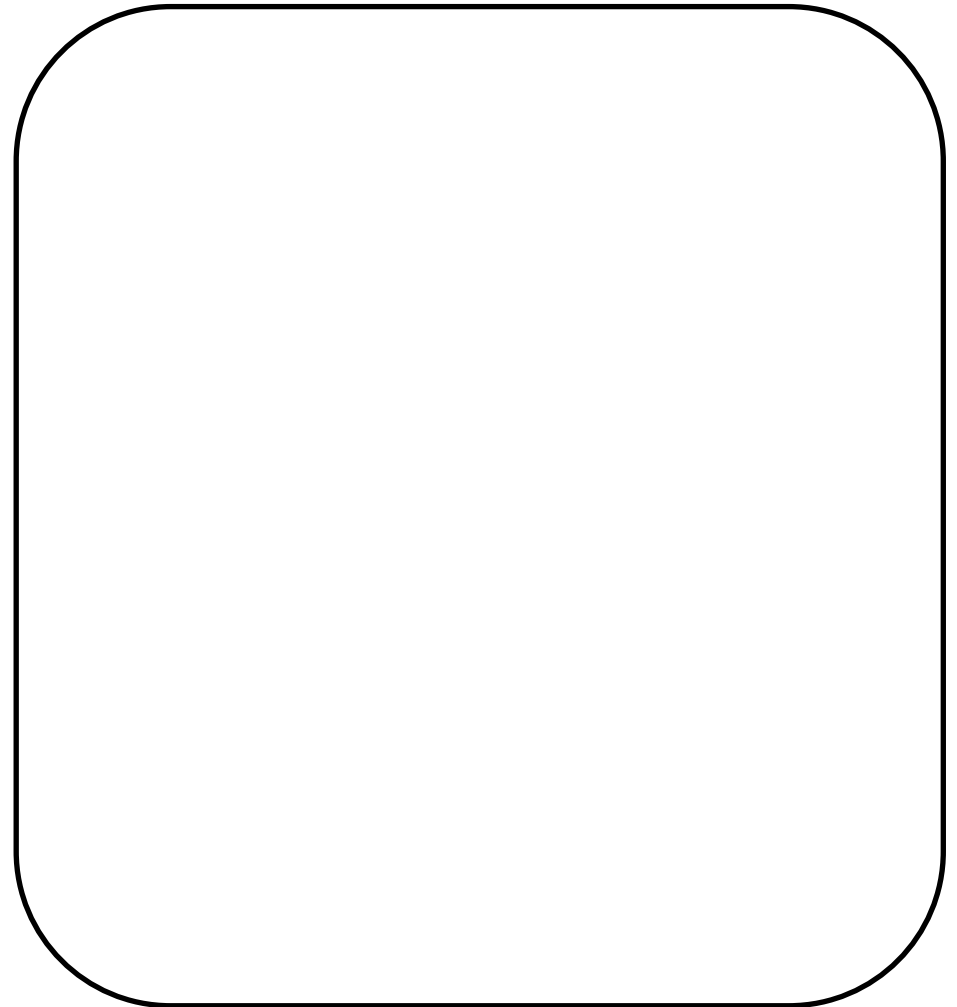

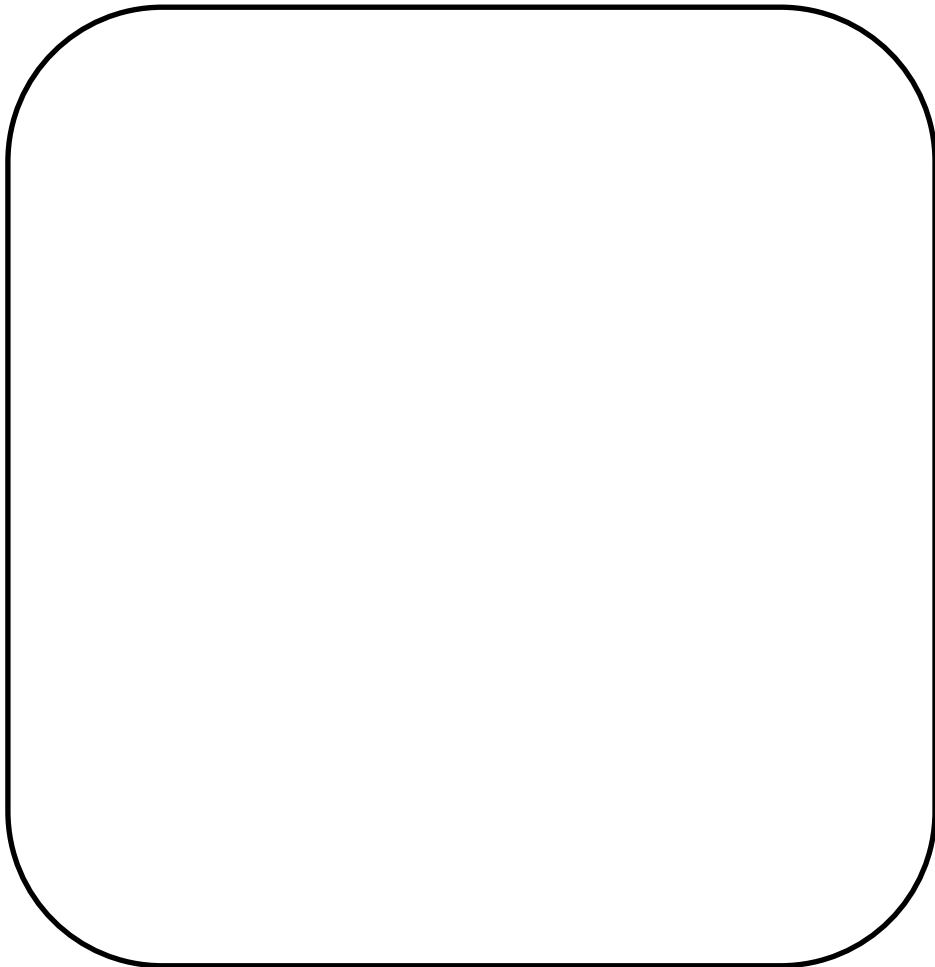

So we played in the world that was home
And our days filled up with fun and love,
And the germs they grew smaller and smaller
And the sun watched them from above.

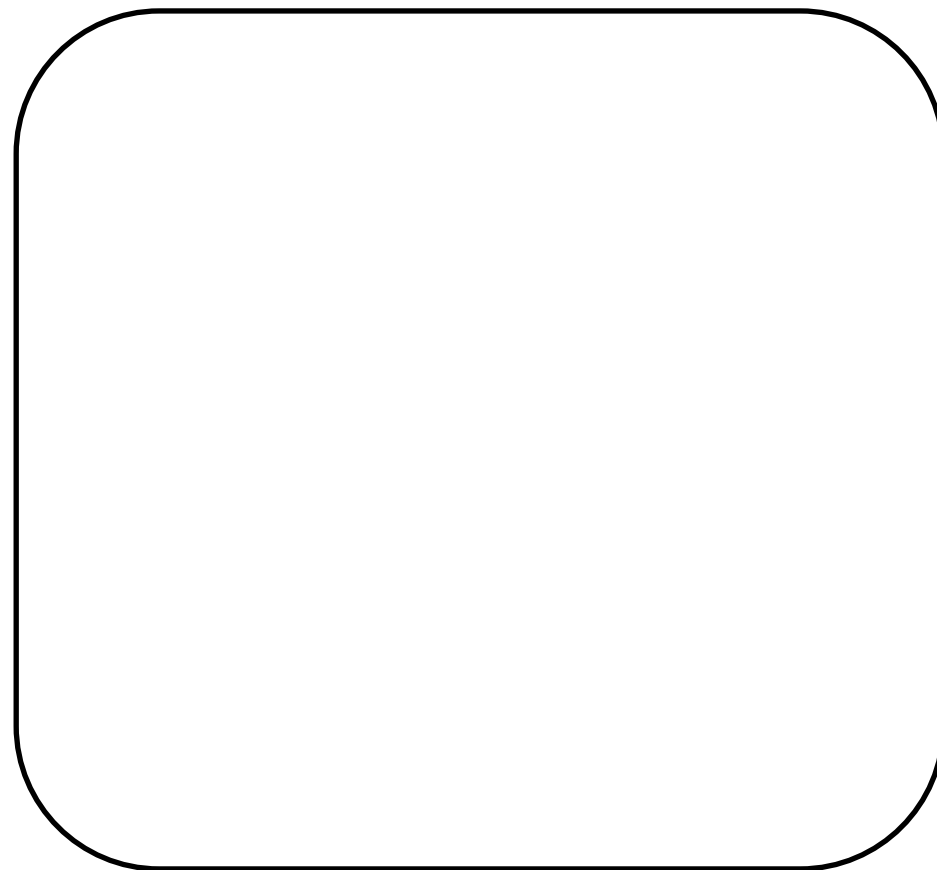

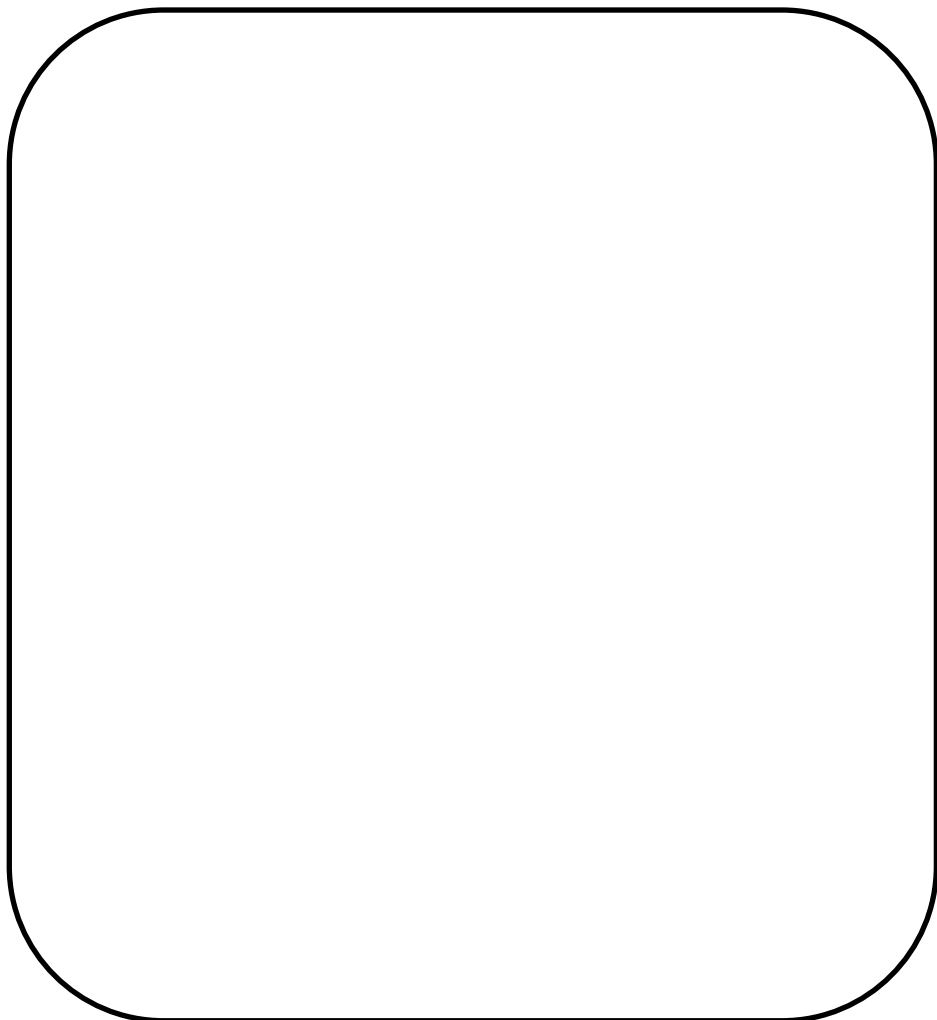

The whole world was washing their hands
And building super toilet roll forts!
Outside was quiet and peaceful,
Now home was the place for all sports.

We couldn't go to cinemas
Or restaurants for our tea.
There was no football parties,
The world got as quiet as can be.

The kids stopped going to school,
The mums and dads went to work less.
Then a great big giant scrubbing brush
Cleaned the sky, the sea and the mess!

Dads started teaching sums,
Big brothers played with us more,
Mums were in charge of homework
And we read and played jigsaws galore!
